Balfegó now delivers red tuna with three electric trucks

Since it was founded, the Spanish family business Balfegó has been committed to the sustainable fishing, feeding and sale of red tuna. Today, the company is pursuing its commitment by purchasing three Renault Trucks E-Tech D Wide electric trucks to carry out its last-mile delivery.

What is a Good Move?

A Good Move is something that helps – or inspires us – at Renault Trucks to reach our ambitious goals of reducing CO₂ emissions.

GOOD MOVES #13

Why is this a Good Move?

Our future towards a clean, emission-free society starts today.
