Trained to disseminate scientific information

To forge a company culture genuinely focused on sustainable development, 78 volunteer "Planet Champions" have been trained to raise awareness of the climate emergency among the 2,500 employees of Renault Trucks. Able to explain the IPCC conclusions, they are also responsible for sharing the actions implemented by the company in favour of electric mobility or the circular economy.

What is a Good Move ?

A Good Move is something that helps– or inspires us – at Renault Trucks to reach our ambitious goals of reducing CO₂ emissions.

Why is this a Good Move?

Renault Trucks' ambition is to accelerate the implementation of solutions to decarbonise all its activities and thus reduce its impact on the environment, for its employees, its customers and society.
